Create your own open adoption plan.

There is an alternative to the state adoption process.

You have a choice.
Your voice matters.

- If you're struggling and don't know what to do.
- If you're concerned the state will terminate your parental rights.
- You can plan an open adoption. You'll be treated with dignity and respect as you explore all of your options.

"Planning an open adoption was an opportunity for me to get my life back on track and still be a part of my children's life."

- Angela, OA&FS Birthmom

Plan an adoption through Open Adoption & Family Services and ...

- You choose the adoptive family.
- You form a lifelong relationship with them.
- You have ongoing visits with your child and his family.
- Your child will grow up knowing who you are and that they are loved by you.
- You will always be part of your child's life.

This is your open adoption.
What you want matters.

If your choice is adoption, we'll help you create an open adoption that honors your needs, as well as your child's.

Sharene's story.

"I was having a hard time and the state took my daughters away. When they were adopted, I didn't know anything about the adoptive parents. I haven't seen my children in a long time."

Choose the parents.

- You choose from 65-85 families who genuinely want an extended family relationship with you.
- You review the families' complete homestudy and family book. View waiting adoptive family profiles at www.openadopt.org.

"When I found out I was pregnant again, I went to OA&FS. This time I had a choice. I chose the best parents for my son. When we met, I knew they were a good fit for my child. I knew they'd cherish him and that he'd grow up to be a good man."

Build a relationship.

- We'll help you build an authentic relationship with the adoptive family.
- Your ongoing visits are guaranteed through a legally enforceable open adoption agreement.

"The adoptive parents got to know who I am first, and know that I'm a good person. They didn't judge me. I like spending time with them and building our relationship."

Make lifelong connections.

- You will always have contact with your child, including ongoing visits.
- You will always have our support. We offer you free, lifelong adoption counseling.
- You will be welcomed into our vibrant open adoption community.

"In an open adoption, your child is not gone. Your child is still there. You still get to see them, to have that relationship, to bond with them and it's a great feeling."
