

OPEN ADOPTION & FAMILY SERVICES

Free Webinar for State Child Welfare Staff

Adoption through OA&FS:

AN OPTION FOR PARENTS ENCOUNTERING STATE INVOLVEMENT

In this webinar specifically developed for state child welfare staff, you'll learn how DHS and OA&FS can work together to support people who wish to explore parenting options including private agency adoption.

Join us as we dive into:

- Ways that DHS and OA&FS can work together.
- Circumstances that can lead to private agency involvement.
- Trauma-informed options counseling at OA&FS.
- Understanding child-centered open adoption.
- Placement timelines and the specifics of OA&FS services.

Register for Tues., Dec. 7, 12-12:45 pm
at openadopt.org/webinars

Can't make this time? That's okay! All registrants will receive a link to the recorded version of this webinar.

"I heard really good things about the presentation and information. I hope that we can continue to connect and collaborate for the benefit of the families and children we serve."

- DHS Permanency Supervisor

Why OA&FS is uniquely qualified to provide these services.

- Non-profit local agency licensed in Oregon and Washington.
- We've been providing all-options pregnancy counseling and open adoption services since 1985.
- Established community partner with state child welfare.
- Trauma-informed counseling and adoption planning services led by experienced staff.
- Pro-choice with a reproductive justice lens.
- Our Board of Directors is led by birth parents.